Code of Conduct

ATIA, its governing Board of Directors and its Members are committed to creating a safe and welcoming environment that is inclusive and free from discrimination, regardless of disability, race, religion, color, national origin, sexual orientation, gender expression or identity, transgender status, age, veteran or marital status, or any other protected categories under applicable law.

ATIA has zero-tolerance for any form of discrimination or harassment, including but not limited to sexual harassment by participants or our staff at our meetings. If you are the subject of, or witness to any violations, you can contact us through the ATIA staff office onsite or email us at info@atia.org.

Unacceptable behavior will not be tolerated and could result in permanent removal from current, and/or any future ATIA events. If a participant is found or reasonably believed to be engaging in unacceptable behavior, ATIA may take any action they deem appropriate, up to and including expulsion from the event without warning or refund. If appropriate, local law enforcement may get involved.

Additional Information

I understand that by registering and participating in ATIA and its events, activities, programs and other functions, I agree that ATIA shall not be held responsible for any claims, demands, actions, judgments, costs, and expenses, including costs of defense thereof, incurred by me, my employees, guests or clients, which arise due to any products and/or services delivered or otherwise provided to me, my employees, guests or clients.

ATIA may use personal identifiable information collected, such as to help minimize any potential hotel attrition penalties for the association and by registering for the conference you consent to such use. If you have any questions or concerns, please contact ATIA at registration@atia.org.

On occasion, an ATIA photographer and/or videographer may take photos and videos of participants at ATIA 2027 participating in conference functions or activities. Please be aware that these photos are for ATIA's use only, and may appear in ATIA conference programs, brochures, newsletters, website, social media, and other publications and materials. Your attendance constitutes your permission and consent for this photography, videography, and subsequent usage.
